Odd Tables, Rockers, Chairs, Beds, Chiffoniers, Bureaus, etc. Suites Also—and Pieces That Have Met With Slight Accidents in Our Great Stocks of

Brand-New Furniture Reduced from 20 to 50 per cent

This week's disposal of the Suites of Dining Room, Bedroom, and Library Furniture, minus this or that piece—and of the great accumulation of odd single pieces, resulting from the late August Sale, will doubtless be later quoted the best bargain opportunity of the season.

On Special Sale—Beginning Tomorrow Morning

Library Furniture is to be specially featured—and various reproductions of old Colonial wooden beds will be sold at prices to prove that 20 to 50 per cent reductions are literally given. So with sumptuous rockers and arm chairs! And very many smaller pieces that include furniture for every room. Certain suites are also to be repriced—to assure their sale tomorrow.

Best Bargains Among the Expensive Furniture

Alluding now to the fine furniture that has met with the slight "accidents" that big business invariably brings. So big here that the furniture department has been packed and jammed with furniture and visitors. And so "accidents" have happened and now a tiny dent or a mere scratch is clipping many dollars from the price of expensive furniture. Come tomorrow and learn that this sale of "accidents" and "odds" should and does mean the season's best values.

Special distribution begins tomorrow morning—Palais Royal, Fourth Floor.
